Laura Recovery Center to Assist in Search for Amber Dubois, Escondido, California

The Laura Recovery Center, at the request of of the KlaasKids Foundation, is sending Dawn Davis and Suzanne Slavin to Escondido to help organize a community search for Amber Dubois. Amber has been missing since February 13, 2009, when she disappeared while walking to Escondido High School. Dawn and Suzanne will leave for Escondido early on Thursday, March 5. As they organize the community of Escondido to search for Amber, they will be training local volunteers in the search techniques outlined in the Laura Recovery Center Manual.

Amber is 14 years old, 5ft., 5in. tall, and weighs 130 pounds. She has short brown hair and blue eyes. More information is available at the LRC web site. Amber's flyer can be downloaded, FAXed, and e-mailed from the Laura Recovery Center site.

Amber's family has established a site with current information about Amber:
