Laura Recovery Center offers Law Enforcement Agency Listing

The Laura Recovery Center for Missing Children is pleased to be able to offer a public listing of the Law Enforcement Agencies in Texas. Through the efforts of a dedicated volunteer our Law Enforcement Agency Listing has up to date contact information on many of our Texas agencies and departments.

The Listing can be found on the Center's web site, www.LRCF.org. A link to the Law Enforcement Agency Listing is on the home page.

The Laura Recovery Center hopes that this information will be valuable to anyone needing to locate a Texas Law Enforcement Agency, especially those families with missing children seeking assistance.

Searchable by County or Zip Code, the Listing provides the agency name, address, telephone, and web site (if available) for over 1200 Texas agencies and departments, making it one of the most comprehensive Listings available.

Hoping to keep the listings as up to date as possible, the Listing solicits feedback from site visitors who have any corrections or additional information.

The Laura Recovery Center - for missing children - is a nonprofit 501(c)(3) organization that was founded in Laura Smither's memory. The Center focuses on Education, Search, and Prevention in the area of missing children, has offered free abduction prevention programs to over 160,000 children throughout the greater Houston area, worked with over 1,300 families with missing loved ones, and has organized over 80 community searches for abducted children nationwide. The Center trains law enforcement at the Houston Police Department training academy and distributes educational materials and child ID kits.
