HOLIDAY HUSTLE

Thank you to our volunteers and the City of Friendswood for supporting the Holiday Hustle benefiting the Laura Recovery Center. This event raised $9,200 for the LRC.

Missing Youth Balmorhea, TX

Monica Cassandra Carrasco has been missing since Oct. 2, 2003. Monica reportedly had attended a prayer service early that evening then returned to her Uncle Abel's home in Balmorhea, TX. According to statements, she went to bed early but later got up to play video games with her twin cousins. After the games were done, she once again returned to the room she was using while staying there.

From that time forward, no one knows what happened to Monica. She simply "disappeared". Missing from her possessions were a Bible and the beige nightgown she wore to bed that night. None of her shoes were missing. She was 16 years old at the time of her disappearance. Anyone having information concerning Monica's disappearance should contact the Midland CrimeStoppers at 1-800-7LOCKUP (1-800-757-2567) or the Laura Recovery Center at 866-898-5723.
